

OSTOMY LAUNCHPAD

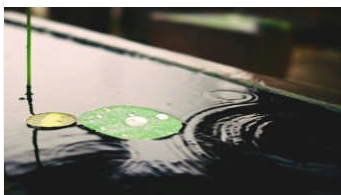

The new revalidation tool for nurses

A simple way to fulfil your CPD requirements

British Journal of Nursing (BJN), in association with Hollister and Dansac Education bring you Ostomy Launchpad.

It is an educational platform that has been tailor-made to develop your clinical knowledge and skills. It will provide you with interesting and relevant content that will stimulate thought and reflection, ultimately helping you fulfil your revalidation requirements.

Browse latest CPD articles

Keeping the skin intact

The three aspects of wound, ostomy and continence nursing all concern care of the skin...

READ MORE >

Stoma care: the role of community nurses

There are many benefits of standardised care but often this is not possible due to variations in the availability of healthcare resources in the UK.

READ MORE >

Working together to do more

On Sunday 9 October 2022 the first face-to-face Association of Stoma Care Nurses UK (ASCN UK) conference for 3 years began.

READ MORE >

Providing structured stoma care through established patient pathways

Marinova and Marinova outline the stoma patient pathway at St Mark's Hospital, London, highlighting how care provision throughout the stoma journey can improve patient outcomes and reduce costs to the NHS.

READ MORE >

This email was sent to you by British Journal of Nursing. MA Healthcare Limited.
Registered in England & Wales: No. 01878373.
Registered Office: St Jude's Church, Dulwich Road, London SE24 0PB.

If you wish to unsubscribe from Ostomy Launchpad emails, please click here.

To understand how we process, use & safeguard your data, please read our Privacy Policy. If you would like to update your marketing contact preferences, then please click here.